

Russ Hartigan For Judge 2024

Russell Hartigan, a seasoned legal professional with an extensive background in both the private sector and public service, is a highly qualified candidate running for Judge in 2024. With a distinguished career that spans over four decades, Hartigan has demonstrated exceptional dedication, expertise, and a commitment to justice.

As a former judge in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Hartigan earned "Highly Recommended" ratings from both the Illinois State Bar Association and the Chicago Bar Association. His experience includes presiding over a wide range of cases, contributing to his well-rounded understanding of the legal system. Notably, he served as a pre-trial mediator, showcasing his ability to facilitate resolutions and promote fair outcomes.

Beyond his judicial role, Hartigan has been actively involved in various leadership positions, including past president of the Illinois Bar Association. His extensive community service, ranging from Berwyn Township Committeeman to roles in multiple bar associations, highlights his commitment to public welfare.

Hartigan's legal career encompasses diverse roles, from representing clients in over 60 jury trials to serving as an arbitrator and court-certified mediator. His wealth of experience extends to teaching at esteemed institutions such as The John Marshall Law School, DePaul University, and Northwestern University, showcasing his dedication to legal education.

In his tenure as the 141st President of the Illinois State Bar Association, Hartigan prioritized supporting attorneys in managing their practices, aiding smaller firms with succession planning, and providing mentorship to new and young lawyers. This focus on nurturing the next generation reflects his forward-thinking approach to the legal profession.

Hartigan's involvement in various community organizations, including Pillars and the Berwyn PAV YMCA, underscores his commitment to social causes. His leadership in creating the Succession/Transition Committee at the Illinois State Bar Association demonstrates a proactive stance in addressing the evolving needs of legal practitioners.

Importantly, Hartigan's personal qualities, such as his approachability, courteous demeanor, and commitment to fairness, make him a candidate who is not only highly qualified but also compassionate in his judicial approach. His ability to listen, coupled with a wealth of legal knowledge, ensures that every individual appearing in his courtroom receives due consideration.

As a judge, Russell Hartigan aims to impart the knowledge and experience accumulated throughout his career, contributing to the betterment of the legal system. His dedication to justice, combined with a proven track record of leadership and community engagement, makes him a compelling choice for those seeking an experienced and fair-minded judge in Cook County. Vote for Russell Hartigan in 2024 to bring a wealth of legal expertise, community commitment, and a genuine passion for justice to the bench.
